Close to the Hackeschen Höfe in Berlin-Mitte there is a recently opened, modern tailoring outlet for the “with-it man” of the 21st century. In a cool and relaxed atmosphere you can look at countless swatches of fine material. When you have made your choice, you will then be advised by suave and charming German-born master tailor and designer Oliver Sinz on the right design for a meticulously cut bespoke-tailored suit with the attention to detail you would expect in Saville Row, coupled with the flair of Italian styling.

The vintage saying that “clothes makes the man” is rapidly making a come back. More and more young, and not so young, men are beginning to realise how good they can look in a well-cut made-to-measure suit and will certainly want to make their way to Di Nobile to make this wish a reality! Mr. Sinz studied design and cutting in Munich and is adept at making clothes both for men and women. So if your wife or girl friend is keen to have a tailored costume take her along with you.

There is also a wonderful selection of superb Egyptian cotton and voile shirt material. So you have the perfect combination - made-to-measure shirts to go with your made-to-measure suits and overcoats. To complete the picture, Oliver also offers you the opportunity to purchase exquisite hand-finished silk ties, silk or cashmere scarves, fine leather belts, and expertly made leather shoes.

Every six weeks a reception is held to enable potential customers to see new designs and patterns and to receive advice on the appropriate colour schemes for their bespoke suits and shirts. Also to be seen will be a variety of lightweight summer suiting materials both for formal and informal wear.

You can also go to Di Nobile during normal business hours, have an espresso or something stronger with Mr. Oliver Sinz and then decide, in your own time, on the material of your choice and leave the rest to “MASTER CUTTER OLIVER,” helped by the latest computerised equipment, to make your suit with as near a perfect fit as possible!
